

Redesign hero section layout

🕒 Category	Design
☑ Completed	✓
🕒 Priority	High
🔗 Project	🌞 30 Degrees East website

1. Hero section

Headline

I help teachers, professionals, and educators confidently transition into the digital space — turning what they already know into online income, without burnout or influencer pressure.

- Bold, large, line height 1.3
- Left-aligned on desktop, centered on mobile

Subheadline

Pre-recorded courses, teaching systems, and guidance to build sustainable online income.

- Line height: 1.5

Primary CTA (button)

- Text: Start Teaching English Online
- Links to: yourdomain.com/start-here or a dedicated "Teach English Online" page

Secondary CTA (button)

- Text: Join the Waiting List
- Links to: your waitlist form section on this page or a separate waitlist page

Layout & styling notes

- Background: Raisin Black #211D20
 - Accent: Pastel Orange #FFAC4A
 - Card-based hero: centered container with rounded corners (20–32px), generous padding (48–64px on desktop)
 - Two columns inside card:
 - Left: eyebrow, headline, subheadline, buttons
 - Right: hero image (rounded corners, subtle Pastel Orange border or accent)

2. "Is this you?" section (empathy)

Section title

┃ You want to grow your teaching impact, but feel stuck in one of these...

Bullets

- You have knowledge and skills but struggle to package them into courses.
- You're teaching online but not getting enough students or clients.
- You feel overwhelmed trying to market yourself and create content.
- You want to grow revenue without burning out.
- You know you can make a bigger impact, but don't know where to start.

Ending line:

┃ If that sounds like you, you're in the right place.

Design notes

- Background: light / off-white
 - Text color: dark grey or Raisin Black
 - Layout: single column, centered text with good spacing

3. How 30 Degrees East helps (roadmap)

Section title

| How we turn your experience into online income

Use 3–4 horizontal cards or a vertical step list.

1. Discover Your Path

- Identify your niche, your expertise, and the best way to turn your teaching into an online business."

2. Design your first teaching system or course

- Turn your lessons into a repeatable framework with clear modules and outcomes.

3. Launch with simple, sustainable marketing

- No influencer grind. Use simple funnels, email, and repeatable messages.

4. Add systems and co-creation

- Add recurring revenue (memberships, bundles) and co-created lessons or programs.

CTA under the steps:

- Button: See the Teach English Online Program (links to your main program page)

Design notes

- Background: medium or dark section for contrast
 - Use icons or numbers 1–4 on each card

4. Courses and programs

Section title

| Courses and programs

Use 2–3 cards:

Card 1 – Teach English Online (Flagship Course)

Who it's for: Teachers and professionals who want a full roadmap to teaching English online.

What it helps you do:

Build a complete teaching system (not random lessons)

Create pre-recorded and live offers that fit your schedule

Set prices that reflect your experience and value

Format: Step-by-step program with video lessons, templates, and guided implementation.

CTA (button): Join the Teach English Online Waitlist

Card 2: Build Your Teaching Brand Online

- Audience: Teachers who have content but no audience
- Focus:
 - Social media strategy
 - Creating lead magnets
 - Branding basics (colors, logo, messaging)
- Outcome: Ready-to-promote personal brand
- Format: 3–4 modules, worksheets, optional group coaching
- CTA (button): Join the Teach English Online Waitlist

Card 3 – Monetize Your Expertise: Selling Digital Products & Templates”

- Audience: Professionals or Teachers with teaching materials
 - Focus:
 - Creating PDFs, prerecorded videos, worksheets, and downloadable templates
 - Listing on marketplaces or your own platform
 - Email marketing and upsells
 - Outcome: Passive income streams
 - CTA (button): Join the Teach English Online Waitlist

5. Digital Products Section – Here’s where your ready-to-use tools live

- Cards/grid of digital products (templates, lesson plans, guides, mini-courses)
- Short, benefit-focused copy
- CTA buttons to buy/download/add to cart
- Optional: small bundle offer or “See all products” link

6. Freebies

Section title

| Start with free resources

Examples (adjust to what you actually create):

- Teach English Online Roadmap (PDF) – A one-page overview of the path from classroom to online income.
- Lesson Framework Template – A reusable template for structuring online English lessons.
- Mini-training: From Live Lesson to Pre-Recorded Course – A short video that shows how to convert one lesson into a course.

CTA:

- Button: See All Freebies (links to your Freebies page or section)

Design notes

- 2–3 cards with small icons
 - Background: very light, keep it calm and minimal

7. Success stories

Section title

| Success stories from real teachers

Structure for each story:

- Name (or initials), role, location if relevant.
- 2–3 sentence quote about how they started teaching online, built a course, or clarified their niche.

Example placeholder copy (replace with real ones later):

"Working with 30 Degrees East helped me turn my one-to-one lessons into a clear package. I launched my first online English program and signed my first 5 students in a month."

CTA:

- Button: Read More Success Stories (links to a dedicated Success Stories page or section)

Design notes

- Background: dark or mid-tone
 - Cards or a simple slider of quotes

8. Final call-to-action / Waitlist

Section title

Ready to start teaching English online?

Subtext:

Join the waiting list to be the first to hear when new pre-recorded lessons, co-creation labs, and live cohorts open.

Form fields:

- Name
- Email

Button:

- Join the Waiting List

Design notes

- Background: Raisin Black
 - Headline: white
 - Button: Pastel Orange with dark text

9. Navigation (for reference)

Top menu items pointing to sections on this page or separate pages:

- Courses – scrolls to or links to the Courses and programs section.
- Digital Products-Cards/grid of digital products (templates, lesson plans, guides, mini-courses)
- Freebies – scrolls to or links to the Freebies section.
- Success Stories – scrolls to or links to the Success stories section.
- Waiting List – scrolls to or links to the final waitlist CTA section.

This page is now a single long homepage: hero → empathy → roadmap → courses → freebies → success stories → final waitlist CTA.
